Adobe After Effects CC 2018 Crack for Windows. If a video editor or a motion designer encounters multiple tracks in one file, .Q: JQuery Changing background color for all items in a list Hi there I am trying to change the background color of all the li element in a list but its not working. I am doing it the same way as in this example : item item2 item3 and the css: .row { background: #919191; } .list-header { background: #919191; } I understand that changing the class for the list item will probably be cleaner but I need to do it this way. A: Try This .row > li:first-child { background: #919191; } As you've seen example, here you need to give parent element and then change the child element. Working Fiddle OR Use nth-child selector .row > li:nth-child(1) { background: #919191; } .row > li:nth-child(2) { background: #919191; } .row > li:nth-child(3) { background: #919191; } Working Fiddle OR Use specific class for each li .list-header > li { background: #919191; } Working Fiddle OR Add a class for List-Header item item2 item3 And then .list-header > li { background: #919191; } Working Fiddle c6a93da74d
